About North Air Logistics

- North Air Logistics, formerly know as Weco-AirCargo, was founded in Copenhagen in 1971
- 3 offices and 18 staff across the Nordic region
- In February 2007, Weco-AirCargo was acquired by the French private equity company, World Freight Company
- Weco-AirCargo was re-branded as North Air Logistics to become consistent with the Air Logistics Group corporate requirements
- A proven financial track-record with a strong brand and reputation
- The quality GSSA of choice in the Nordic region

With 3 offices and 18 employees, North Air Logistics is well positioned to provide full cargo sales and service coverage across the Nordic region.

The North Air Logistics head office is located at Copenhagen airport. From here, full coverage is provided across Denmark and Norway. Today Norway accounts for 50% of business generated in Copenhagen.

Branch offices are located at Stockholm airport in Sweden and Helsinki airport in Finland. Our offices have the infrastructure in place to provide full administration, operational and sales services.
